

School of Radiologic Technology

Mailing Address: 1300 Roanoke Avenue, Riverhead, New York 11901
Classroom Address: 4 West Second Street, Lower Level, Riverhead, New York 11901
(631) 548-6173
Email: xrayschool@pbmchealth.org

Program Mission, Goals, Student Learning Outcomes and Purpose

The Radiologic Technology Program sponsored by Peconic Bay Medical Center is dedicated to provide the healthcare system with a compassionate and competent registered staff radiographer.

Goal #1: Students will be clinically competent.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Students will demonstrate good positioning skills.
- Students will demonstrate appropriate radiation protection practices.
- Students will demonstrate proper technique selection.
- Graduates are adequately prepared.

Goal #2: Students will practice effective communication skills.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Students will explain procedure well to patients.
- Students will demonstrate presentation skills.
- Students will be able to communicate effectively in writing.

Goal #3: Students will demonstrate problem solving and critical thinking skills.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Students will solve a non-routine patient issue.
- Students will develop knowledge of critical thinking.
- Students will evaluate images.

Goal #4: Students will demonstrate professionalism.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Students will understand ethical decision making.
- Graduates will have professional courtesy.

Purpose

The purpose of the School of Radiologic Technology at Peconic Bay Medical Center is to provide the students with the necessary technical skills, as well as the moral and ethical qualities which will enable them to fulfill the responsibilities of the Radiologic Technology profession.